NINTH GRADE RAPID English GRAMMAR BY ASHRAF VVN

NOUN PHRASE AND VERB PHRASE MODULE 02

Noun phrase is generally defined as a word or a group of words in a sentence which together casts a noun. A noun phrase can be a one word. A pronoun is also a noun phrase.

A noun phrase can be a subject, object, complement, adverbial, object of a preposition.

In a phrase the noun can be modified by a quantifier(all, some) determiners, adjective another noun etc.

Verb phrase. It is generally defined as a phrase composed of a at leat one main verb, , objects, complements, adverb phrase, prepositional phrase. It may be a singular main verb or it may have auxiliary verbs also.

Prepositional phrase. A prepositional phrase is the combination of a preposition and a noun phrase.

1. All the students came to the class late
2. Our dear headmaster came to our class in the morning
3. All the birds were flying in the sky
4. Some workers were working hard in the field
5. The students left the class early
6. We noticed everything in a hurry
7. A beautiful lady joined in our course last year
8. A few bright students sat in the class till the end
9. The old man lost his purse in the market.
10. They looked through the broken window

Noun phrase is generally defined as a word or a group of words in a sentence which together acts a noun. A noun phrase can be a one word. A pronoun is also a noun phrase. A noun phrase can be a subject, object, complement, adverbial, object of a preposition.

In a phrase the noun can be modified by a quantifier(all, some) determiners, adjective another noun etc.

Verb phrase. It is generally defined as a phrase composed of a at least one main verb, objects, complements, adverb phrase, prepositional phrase. It may be a singular main verb or it may have auxiliary verbs also.

1. All the students came to the class late
2. Our dear headmaster visited our class in the morning
3. All the birds were flying in the sky
4. Some workers were working hard in the field
5. The students left the class early
6. We noticed everything in a hurry
7. A beautiful lady joined in our course last year
8. A few bright students sat in the class till the end
9. The old man lost his purse in the market.
10. They looked through the broken window

Prepositional phrase. A prepositional phrase is the combination of a preposition and a noun phrase. Underlined words are prepositional phrases.

All the women in the camp

The fox took rest at the pond

We met her at the bus stop

She looked us through the window

The duck left the pool in the morning

Prepared by

ashraf vvn

Hst, dghss, tanur, malappuram

join our wats app group 7736 752 752