HEALTH AND PHYSICAL EDUCATION

SUMMATIVE ASSESSMENT-II 2025-2026 E-9001 17/12/2025

Std: 9 Medium: English Total score: 15

SHINU R. HS PHYSICAL EDUCATION TEACHER. GHS MUDAPPALLUR, PALAKKAD

Q NO	ANSWERS	MARK
1	C (A-4 B-1 C-2 D-3)	1
2	Only A is Correct	1
3	• Choking is the blockage of the upper airway with food or other objects, which blocks the air flow and prevents a person from breathing effectively. Symptoms of choking • Inability to breathe • Coughing/gagging • Eyes protrude due to lack of breath • Skin, lips and nails, turn blue • Inability to talk • Clutching the throat • Losing consciousness on rare occasions.	2
4	• Vertebral column and connected muscles become flexible and strong. • Flexibility of hip joint increases. • Calf and hamstring muscles get a good stretch. • Improves digestion • Internal organs get nourished by the increased flow of blood in the upper extremities. • This asana improves metabolism.	2
5	• Swimming as a sport gives opportunities to take part in competitions. • Learning swimming skills helps one get various career opportunities. • Swimming is considered for therapeutical purposes. e.g. Hydrotherapy.	2
6	• Retain the right posture. • Take frequent breaks while using devices. • Make stretching exercises a habit to reduce stiffness of muscles and to increase flexibility. • Do exercises to increase the strength of muscles. • Keep the screen of devices like mobile phone at the eye level. • Do yogasanas like Bhujangasana and Vakrasana.	2

Downloaded From: https://textbooksall.blogspot.com/

7-A	Body Posture Balance coordination Bone and muscle health	2
7-B	Sports culture refers to the values, customs, and practices associated with physical activity and sports. It involves everything from playing, watching, organising, and governing sports. It also involves the way sports and physical activities are presented through media. Sports culture refers to behaving in accordance with social values such as behaving ethically and respecting the culture of other teams and players.	2
8-A	• Lifestyle diseases are health problems caused by unhealthy lifestyles such as wrong diet, habits, lack of physical activity, smoking, alcohol consumption and mental stress. Causes of lifestyle diseases • mental stress • Lack of exercise • Bad eating habits • Use of drugs • Lack of sleep Remedies to avoid lifestyle diseases • Include physical activity in day to day life. • Follow better food habits. • Follow a better daily routine.	3
8-B	• Make the victim lie on a plane surface. • Observe the victim's general condition. • If the victim is conscious, make him/her lie on his/her left side. • Look for any foreign body in the nose or mouth that is obstructing the breath. If found, try to remove it. • Check if the victim is breathing by observing the movements of the chest or belly. • If there is no pulse and breathing consider the victim to be unconscious. Start Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation (CPR) immediately. Continue CPR until the person becomes conscious or medical help arrives. • Use heavy clothes or bedsheets to provide warmth to the victim's body. • Take the victim to the hospital as early as possible.	3

Downloaded From: https://textbooksall.blogspot.com/